

CCRR WORKSHOPS WINTER 2011

From the list below please choose the workshops you'd like to attend. Circle them and keep them on your fridge or bulletin board for your own reference.

Complete the registration form and return it with your payment. Remember, first come, first served. If the workshop is free you still need to RSVP to 604-847-2237. No attendance without pre-payment. We look forward to seeing you!

Lights, Camera, Action!

DATE: Wed. Nov 23rd 7:00 p.m.
LOCATION: 7112 Vedder Rd.
COST: Free for Registered Licence Not Required and Licensed Family providers

FULL!

Come and join me for the evening to watch two new childcare videos. "When A Child Pretends" demonstrates that pretend play is not an idle activity and "Play Power - Time Together – Learning to Play with Young Children" is a video helping us to understand adults role in play, and how we can support the natural learning that is part of every play experience. Come along and enjoy some popcorn while we review and discuss how both of the video are relevant in our work with children.

Facilitator: CCRR Staff

Safe Spaces

DATE: Tues. Jan 10, 2012 7:00 p.m.
LOCATION: 7112 Vedder Rd.
COST: Free for Registered Licence Not Required and Licensed Family providers

Learning empathy, emotional literacy and problem solving at a young age can reduce the emergence of bullying behaviours that may manifest in older children. Safe Spaces gives providers the tools to teach young children the skills they need to resist and prevent bullying.

Facilitators: CCRR Staff

Understanding A Child's Temperament

DATE: Wed. Jan 25, 2012 7:00 p.m.
LOCATION: 7112 Vedder Rd.
COST: Free for Registered Licence Not Required and Licensed Family providers

This workshop will look at how a child's temperament plays a part in their personality and how you can uncover a child's strengths and offer support and accommodation where they need it.

Facilitators: Chilliwack Community Services Families First Staff

Seriously Simple Story Telling

DATE: Tues. Feb 7th

LOCATION: 7112 Vedder Rd.

COST: Free for Registered Licence Not Required and Licensed Family providers

Come and join us for a fun evening of storytelling. Pick up wonderful tips and resources to enhance your storytelling and learn how to tell stories with objects you have in your setting.

Facilitators: CCRR Staff

Die Cuts for Day Cares

DATE: Thurs. Feb 16th

LOCATION: Classic Cards 45933 Alexander Ave.

COST: $5 all

PLEASE NOTE: Maximum 15 participants.

Tired of hand cutting shapes? Meet us at Classic Cards on Alexander for a fun evening. Learn how to use die cuts to make professional looking shapes to use for felt stories, bulletin boards, collage materials, and more. You take home three fun new resources to use with your children.

Move and Grow 2: Music and Movement

Move and Grow 1 was so popular we've invited Barb back!

DATE: Tues, March 27, 2012

LOCATION: 7112 Vedder Rd.

COST: $5 for Registered LNR and LF, $10 for non members, licensed group, and preschool staff

Movement plays a vital and crucial role in learning and brain development. As caregivers, we can encourage children to move their bodies in a variety of ways. Come and explore the movement concepts of body and spatial awareness and learn how to apply these concepts to ECE curriculum. Discover how to choose and use music. Learn how to integrate movement experiences throughout the day. Wear comfortable clothing.

Facilitator: Barbara Karmazyn is a highly energetic and entertaining speaker, who uses an experiential format to help her audience process and remember key points of her talk. She brings 25 years of experience as an educator with children and adults.

All workshops at 7:00 at 7112 Vedder Rd. unless otherwise noted